

LabAccess Online Ordering

LabAccess.com offers 24/7 access to comprehensive laboratory information as your project progresses. You can view live project information such as submitted samples, approved test results, Certificates of Analysis, and raw data packages. Online ordering is now available for routine sample submission projects and will help save time in submitting samples electronically, reduce processing delays, and improve quality.

Why Choose Eurofins BioPharma Product Testing?

A pioneer in providing innovative online data access, Eurofins BioPharma Product Testing's proprietary portal LabAccess.comSM is the most innovative, comprehensive, and user-friendly data management tool in the industry.

Our secure online web portal is available 24/7 to support your project needs.

Online ordering cuts time and guesswork from sample submission forms for routine sample submission projects.

We can become an extension of your Digital Laboratory, integrating data from LabAccess.com, Online Ordering, and LabAccess Web Services.

Our global, experienced, and dedicated team of in-house developers work to ensure the stability and continuous availability of the system.

Benefits

LabAccess.com's concise, fast, and intuitive online ordering feature offers many time-saving efficiencies and benefits, including:

- Reduces processing delays and follow-up questions to streamline the submission process
- Re-order functionality speeds order efficiency and improves consistency
- Improves turnaround time, starting with reduced time for sample registration and preparing and notifying the laboratory in advance of sample arrival
- Enables expedited sample registration in order to accommodate rush turnaround time
- Easily make changes to orders with traceability to version history
- Access historical orders to view order status and place re-orders
- Manual transcription and decision making is significantly reduced, improving the quality of sample submission and registration

Key Features

Our online ordering portal is designed to accommodate routine sample submissions of any order size and has a flexible, intuitive interface for ease of use, user prompts, and other features, including:

- Sample Import function allows users to upload Excel spreadsheets, using output from client LIMS with efficient, one-time, field mapping

- The ability to restrict access to online ordering based on role assigned to your LabAccess account

For more information and to assess whether OnlineOrdering is right for your next project, please contact your Key Account Manager or Regional Business Development Representative.

- The ability to attach related documents to sample submission and add customized instructions, reducing ancillary emails to the laboratory
- Links to quotations allow users to quickly select tests from the quotation, eliminating transcription and guesswork
- Digitally transfer your LIMS data into Sample Submissions to save time and trace your lot numbers
- Packing List / Order Submission Forms are automatically generated in a single PDF and display correct shipping address
- Confirmation emails are sent to user and customer service representative
- Convenient, direct access to quotations, purchase orders and transactional batches
