This means in English language: Products that comply with Finnish M1, Danish DICL or with the EMICODE EC1 or EC1 PLUS label are assumed to be low-emitting.

On top of showing the license to use one of these labels, SINTEF requires to see the underlying test reports. Under this condition, also AgBB and Blue Angel test reports can be sufficient documentation.